

WESTERN ANCIENT REGIONAL ARMIES (3000 BC-500 AD)

Inspired by Mwise (see <https://fanaticus.boards.net/thread/3137/dba-3-army-spreadsheet>), I have made my own version of the Army Lists, rearranged into various geographical 'regions'. I did this as I've always been fascinated by how one DBA army evolves into another, but find the current lists a bit of a confused muddle and hard to follow sequentially. I find it useful for seeing how the swapping of a few elements can allow me to morph one army into another, with the minimum of extra figure costs and time consuming painting.

This booklet only covers the western armies from 3000 BC to about 500 AD, as they are my favorites (and I only included India because Alexander the Great campaigned there). Later I plan on a supplement to cover the eastern armies to about 500 AD, and another to cover the entire world 500 to 1500 AD, including the Pacific and North & South America.

Some of the names have been altered or embellished in order to help me understand just who it is we are talking about. Likewise, some dates have been truncated, as there is no point in mentioning that the Marian Romans existed from 105 BC to 25 BC when Caesar was only in Briton between 55-54 BC.

I have been a bit harsh with the colour-coding of armies, labeling those with 5 or more 'weak troops' in yellow. But it allows me to see-at-a-glance the basic strengths of each. A lack of room prevented the listing of all the enemies, but as a basic guide all those within or adjacent to a region could be enemies, providing the time periods also coincide.

Lastly I should emphasize that all this is purely for my own purposes, with my own added notes where appropriate. Nonetheless, other players might also find it useful.

Legend

Unusual troops are in red, and // can dismount during battle.

Skirmishers: Pj are javelinmen, Ps are slingers, Pa are archers, Pc are crossbows, and Pv are variable (so could be any type).

LH are javelin armed, while HA are Horse Archers.

(Some prominent personalities are mentioned in brackets in the Generals column)

Aggression

Aggressive are in red (aggression 3 or 4).

Standard are in black (aggression 2).

Passive are in green (aggression 0 or 1).

Light blue are Littoral.

Army Colours

Red: mounted armies.

Grey: heavy infantry armies.

Blue: shooting armies.

White: mixed armies with no overall preference.

Yellow: armies with 5 or more weak troops (i.e. Shooters/Auxiliaries/Psiloι/Hordes).
