The Strangers Wars

Gondeon uses his deadly god power against the tens of billions of Strangers, he can defeat most of the Strangers and he can not stop too many Strangers. Strangers attack him by their powers affecting him unhurt. Gondeon needs to protect the Alphas before Strangers hurt or kill the Alphas.

When Gondeon scans an odd thing about Star Woman with his amazing eye powers as one of these attributes through a god power set, he saves Bakh first and Starwoman next.

Bakh faces the taste of the alien Strangers' powers, dodges the attacks of the Strangers, can keep fight, but runs out of her stamina. She is saved by Gondeon.

Star Woman almost loses her life and gets the near death experience from the attacking of a Strangers armada. She has no choice to fight for her life and use an object via power the whole time. She is permanently bonded with an object via power and she is mutated by that. She loses all her humanity after getting attacked really bad. Bakh comes toward Star Woman and helps her get up on the land while Gondeon blasts the Strangers into dusts.

Zeia is in a shell-shock by those incidents. Those incidents that she sees are Strangers killing some of her teammates in front of her. She feels helpless to save the human teammates as she thinks humans can not beat the alien. And she sees Kakapo getting killed in action by the Strangers in a despite of his magical being.

Sweetheart is next to get almost killed by Strangers from trying to save her teammate, Mecca and is saved by Zazzles. Mecca is already getting killed at that time. Not for Zazzles, Sweetheart would join Mecca's fate.

Zeia calls the Alphas to hide and find a safe place. When some Alphas manage to find a safe place and meet Zeia, Zeia asks them if there are more survivors there. Sweetheart tells Zeia that is no time for us to know just because of we are gone and trapped somewhere. Zeia asks her, "Did the Strangers do that?" Sweetheart says no.

Zunior is readying to use his demonic teleportation for the Zemo to come in his teleportation, but Zunior is getting killed instantly while opening a teleportation. Teleporting Sweetheart, Zazzles, and Zeia in a trapped teleportation, they are falling into an abyss of a teleportation.

Right before Zeia sees her surviving teammate Doctor Martin, Dr. Martin comes in the wrong place where Mecca and Zunior died. Bergyle is next to meet Dr. Martin. They are surrounding by the Strangers. Their fates remain unknown.

The Zemo: The Squaderon Zemo
During the Strangers War
Squads Reports Status

While Spider-Lady is communicating with a twenty-four squad leaders by checking on them, collecting an information of Strangers' planet, and finding the threat alert at the Zemo facility. She calls her group to be ready and to find out what a threat is. A teleportation appears and sends three away from the Strangers' planet.

Quick Copycat Lady among the group reports a report to Spider-Lady by telling her that three of ours--Zeia, Zazzles, and Sweetheart are on the ground and Sweetheart needs immediate medical attention this instantly. Spider-Lady asks Quick Copycat Lady to ask Zeia, "Why is Zeia not responding to her since the Alphas arrive on the Strangers plane?"

As Spider-Lady meets Zeia, Blazzers falls down the ground, loses the control of elemental power, and goes crazy and fury. At the time, their unfinished conversation stops and they come to calm down Blazzers. Blazzers say, "Strangers..... They tried killing me many times. They killed my team!"

During the Strangers Wars

When some Alphas meet the Zemo: the Squaderon Zeo from the Earth, they desperately finds any luck on contact with other Alphas from Strangers' planet or aboard ship. "Nothing. No response at all," a current leader of the Zemo: the Alpha Squads, Zeia said.

Spider-Lady tells Zeia that she gets some information from other squads about some Alphas from a radio earpiece. Zeia asks who. Spider-Lady says it is Cheetah.

Someone told me what's happening to Cheetah in a report through a radio earpiece.

Cheetah was surrounding by the Strangers everywhere and she did all what she could fight for her life. She kept running where the Strangers block her. Volga died. Then Calico died. Now Cheetah is next. She's still alive on the planet and outrunning the Strangers. That's all what I get an information from someone.

Zeia's report status: Volga died first in protecting the human agents on our team during an ambush. Then Agent Palmer is nowhere to be seen after the rock blew him a death blow. Whistler was next to die. Keef was hit really hard and he was blown away to either to a space or somewhere in the planet. That was when ambush happened and the Strangers attacked us by a surprise. After that, I send Gondeon to find any survivors while I found Sweetheart and Calico and Zazzles was behind us. I gave Zazzles a order to go to Earth, but everything is in a mess. Zazzles would go but could not. Zazzles is interrupted by the attacks of the Strangers. Zazzles pulls Sweetheart out of the way where Sweetheart is more likely to die and Mecca is already dead. And Calico is hard to tell whether she's alive or dead. I saw Cheetah there with Calico. Another side of the place where zunior died teleporting us and I saw Doctor Martin coming out of the place after we were disappearing.

Meanwhile Bakh, Cheetah, Gondeon, and Star-Woman meet each other on planet and make a deal that we must not tell anyone our secret, they all accept the deal. Then Gondeon brings Bakh, Star Woman, and Cheetah carrying Calico with her to the Earth.

Now...Gondeon is still looking for more Zemo survivors on the planet. When Zazzles meets Gondeon by shocking to see him alive, a report that she calls in for the Zemo: the Squaderon Zeo is Gondeon is found on the planet. Zeia and Spider-Lady ask Gondeon the questions of the current team report status: "Where are the rest of the Alphas, Deon?" He says, "Agent Palmer is found dead afloat from a blunt head hit last time I found him. I saw the remains of Mecca on the ground. Bergyle is dead into technological pieces. Ckaj died in a hidden cave."

Spider-Lady begins asking specific people, "Bakh? Star Woman? Cheetah? Calico? Dr. Martin? Kakapo?" He does not answer her question and pauses while he's still remembering the deal between them and keeping the secret. He answers, "Bakh..Star Woman...Cheetah... Calico... they are dead."
