Dinah has survived the end of the warrior wars and awakened up by a spirit of Miami, a sister of Dina.

She has climbed up on a top of the dead poll of warriors and can see where she can go over there.

Seemingly, she wins the fight as if she survives.

She doesn't know why they died at the end of warrior war.

She returns to the Zemo by shocking her teammates to see a lot of change in her as a fierce warrior.

All before the end of the warrior wars, she meets the Michy warrior tribe by giving her their words that she can be accepted as a warrior. The Michy wants her to earn their trust in saving the last, new generation of their tribe--Igan.

She accepts their request in an order of search of Igan. She finds the Igan's location in which she has no choice to face these deadly warriors. The unknown warriors killed all the Igan tribe except only a young Igan warrior girl, Alessandra. She successfully fought these deadly warriors through getting Alessandra out of the way with the help of Michy and allies.
