Important Events:

- Before the Strangers Wars, Robin and Samuel separate from each other since the Shadow of Arc disbands. During the Prudent Zemo timeline, Robin treks out a last trek to the Zemo facility by recognizing the missing member of the Original Zemo--Taffy as she wonders if her power affects Taffy out of time and cease to exist. After that, she joins the Zemo Squad in an order to fight the Strangers and reveals to be wounded in her critical situation.
- Samuel Lennox is demoted and stepped down as a leader by his whole team--Shadow of Arc. He is being blamed mostly by the Shadow of Arc for losing their co-leader, Robin and not able to save her. He confronts Robin at the Zemo facility and wants an apology from Robin. He is ignored by Robin. He joins the Zemo Squad in an order to fight the Strangers Wars. When his team--The Zemo Squad disappear, he finds himself alive and alone somewhere far, far away from the homeplace of the Strangers. He goes solo while he survives the attacks. He meets the Zemo facility on the land of the Earth by a surprise. He reveals not to remember what is happening to his team and him during the Strangers Wars.
- Haley and Sparks find themselves alive when the Strangers start to use the weapon by about to kill them, but Sparks uses the power to transmute herself and Haley in a spark from herself to an unknown source. They appear next in the unknown source what appears to be a zee level computer monitor system as they realize they are inside of the Zemo facility and home on the land of the Earth.
- Vogue Woman struggles with her temporary powerless status while she has no choice in using a death touch that can kill her fatally from an alien--Strangers. Somehow, she pushed herself to survive the attacks by realizing her invulnerability is return.
- Steppenwolf leaps out by clawing the masks of the Strangers for almost killing Strong Man. He takes a wounded Strong Man with him on the way to an Earth if he can make the long trip on his own feet in the universe.
- Pink Bunny is getting hit by the Strangers and becomes aggressively out-of-control madwoman when she sees the Strangers kill one of her teammates. She dares to bend a law by removing a jewel from her forehead, revealing to be a powerful were-rabbit-like being in its unnaturalistic beast mode in attacking on the Strangers in front of her team.
- Zuni is the Strangers' top priority on a list. The Strangers targets the teleporters first and kills them. They just kills Zuni, a powerful demon teleporter. When Zuni realized that he will be going to die before using his demonic teleportation powers, he released all his demonic teleportation powers for his team to reach through it. He died saving his teammates from a sudden death.
- Meteorock uses all his powers at his maximum power by unleashing too many Meteor Showers and destroying the impenetrative force field and homeworld on the Strangers' planet. He is hit by the cosmic alien ray gun and seemingly died.
- Spider-Lady frustrates with out of contact from twenty-four leaders. She orders her team to prepare the emergency back-up plans by seeing if they could able to fix any new advanced technology to reach any leader from the universe. She starts a maximum override by turning the Earth into a web-shaped force field before the Strangers demolish the Earth. She calls her team to divide in two on the way to find the squads out there and to find any contact appearing everywhere inside of the Zemo facility.

- Giraffe is caught in the explosion with her team. The explosion blows her away. She uses her long neck power to reach to the tallest pole and climbs up on a top of the pole. She sees too many Strangers and other squads fighting each other a far, far away from there. She sees all the poles lining up on the planet of the Strangers and decides to leap on the other pole. She continues in leaping to a countless pole reach.
- Lion is striking the Strangers like a speed of a lightning. He runs like a speed of a lightning. The Strangers never give up on killing him, but miss him many times.
- Suna uses her sexy leather jacket turning into a million of bombs by throwing at the Strangers and ensnaring the mines inside of her sexy leather jacket. It killed many Strangers.
- Hot Pink has no choice to use a deadly power of the Volos by transforming into a form of Volos by unleashing her Hot Pink element combined with Morpheus' viruses at the Strangers effectively. She is no longer Hot Pink. Her power becomes mutated permanently. Her powers killed a lot of Strangers in which she broke her own law in an order to become a monstrous lethal force.
- Jeckos is going to be stomped by the Stranger's foot. She can not control the wind in the universe, but she wants to try a new move that she never has done before. She touches the land of the planet of the Strangers before a foot is going to stomp on her. She finally sacrifices her humanity, human form, and herself by using her power air current against the universe in which she is trying to bond with universe and land into something new but deadly. She is no longer a Jeckos and Windy. She touches the spirit of the evil Omen and wears a headband of an "O" in finding Omen by telling her that she just ends up like Omen now. Omen tries to stop her from turning into a new form, but is blown away out of a headband and returns to her original body wholly. Omen does not understand why Jeckos give Omen a new life.
- Xenon blasts a full xenon elemental blastover at the Strangers while his brain can not take the power well and starts to strain.
- Agent Chelley wants to save Case for repaying the debt to him for saving her life twice before the Strangers kill Case. She uses her deadly mystic powers leftover while she saves them for the emergency. She just uses them by killing all the Strangers directionally without hurting her team. However, Strangers hit her really bad and they kill Case, but Case's human form is shattered and reveals a godlike form by destroying the Strangers.
- Phoebe pushes her team away before they make a move. She wants to separate a phoenix from herself, throwing a phoenix to the Strangers into a mass explosion.
- Lady Liuwa makes it home to the Zemo facility from universe and finds no one is home. She sends a message to Spider-Lady and she thinks all the Zemo is dead. She writes a note for any survivors to get this message and letting the Zemo that she is alone and alive. She becomes depressing when she believes everyone is dead around her and thinks she is a curse.
- King Nilo makes it home after Lady Liuwa and meets the other Zemo and wants to help them find the missing members.
- Ghent is a captive with a Stranger chancellor who told Stranger tormentors to torment and break him until he dies a slowly death. Ghent's deadly power destroyed all the machines and force field from the inside of a chancellor's room. Everyone saw the massively huge beam in the same direction everywhere. His family realized it is Ghent and wanted to find him. Too late for them to come and find him, he exploded every single Strangers and building into a massively enormous universal bomb.
- Sweetheart bears the witness the massively mesas of planet from Mesa to attack the powerful strangers and sees Mesa getting killed. She hits the ground, breaking the ground where the Strangers and making them join the death where they did to Mesa. The other Strangers come after her and keep hitting on grounds by shaking Sweetheart a distortion. Sweetheart sees the Strangers' hands toward her as she knows that she is going to die anytime. But Zazzles and Zeia grabs Sweetheart and takes her away from the Strangers to a damaged teletransportational portal in a courtesy of a dead Junior.

- Nitro is broken and damaged by the Strangers. He still stands up fighting against the Strangers. They finally destroyed Nitro and his form. They start to fear of actual form of Nitro-the North Star. They learn that he was not dead a long time ago. He unleashed all the stars in the northern to the end of the universe by making them reach the Strangers in its deadly hot temperature and killing most of the Strangers.
- Some unknowns finally reach to the Space Star Station and find the contact. They start running the Space Star Station in activating an gateway via the Earth where the badlands between North Dakota and South Dakota is. Spider-Lady finds a strange dot on the map showing where the Original Star Dagers' headquarters--Space Star Station by trying to make a contact with someone who is currently at Space Star Station. She asks if this is Yogalarus, Zeia, Nitro, Galax, Viren, Hot Rod, or Ghent. They heard her familiar voice by a surprise by asking if this is Anita. This confuses Spider-Lady more than she thinks it is not the Star Dagers and it is impossible that some people are alive from annihilating Star Nation from attack of the AlieNation. The Star Space Station declared an emergency intergalactic battalion on the Strangers by surprising all the worlds of aliens in a confusion.
- Cleodrina morphs into something unnatural beast to try to adapt in the environmental system of alien and angrily avenges the deaths of her boyfriend's family. She must kill all the Strangers until she die if that is all what she has.
- Morphenia finally contacts Spider-Lady while she gets another reinforcement nothing more than King Nilo. She reports that she finds the deceased agents confirmed matching to Meg Pal, Jordan Pal, Jordan Pal, Joey Pal, Hamil Huxley, and the shedding skins of morphing stages seemingly matching to Cleodrina. She could not find the last one among the dead agents nothing more than Joaquin Pal. She feels concerned about her husband, Joe Pal's fate. Spider-Lady gasps and finds a delayed message with an audio from Cleodrina, opening it. It says, "Please do not come and find me. Please do not stop me until I kill every single alien on this planet. For Meg. For Hamil. For Jordan. For Joey. I think Joaquin dies. I dont know where Joe and Jonathan split off with me and Joaquin while those are getting killed into a bomb. It blows us away. Now I do not leave this planet until all the Strangers die. Bye." Spider-Lady sends it to Morphenia and tells her to take a look at the video and message and to hear an audio from Cleodrina. Morphenia gasps to hear the last time she knew Joe and Johnathany Pal split off with me.
- Espio finally calls out to Spider-Lady in front of Blazzers and Vogue Woman at the Zemo facility by preparing the crash site and finding her and her team. She says no time to talk and shows a video revealing an unconscious Robin laying down. Blazzers sees Robin on a video and yells out that he will take the preparing, telling Spider-Lady to keep watching Strong Man at medical bay when a doctor gets here. He gets a list and tells some to prepare the emergency on their way. A capsule hits the water into pieces. When Blazzers sees the destroyed capsule, Vogue Woman tells others to go back to a facility if see there is a back up plan that Espio has and worries about Blazzers' mental statement. Spider-Lady confusedly seeing Espio teleport to the facility where she stands right there and yelling that some needs medical attention.
- Clathyrates saw Doctor Martin getting killed in front of Snake, Soldier, and herself while Doctor Martin cloaked them all from the Strangers. He is losing all his humanity. His remains are gone. Something is wrong with a male doctor. He risks his life by merging with his own creative invention into something unknown and making the Strangers think he is dead. He controls the machine all the world by speaking to Spider-Lady, he will send Clathyrates, Snake, and Soldier away to the Zemo facility and telling her that he will save others and not to tell Clathyrates that he is alive. Spider-Lady thinks why he wants to go on a suicide mission and knows that he is merely a human who is out of the leagues of Strangers.

- Cheetah, Starwoman, and Bakh faced the very difficult times and dealt with the deaths of members. They are on the run. Gondeon found out Starwoman and Bakh were not on a list and asked Spider-Lady, "Where are his best friends--Starwoman and Bakh?" He told Spider-Lady that Zeia did not deserve all that from the criticisms of Bakh and Starwoman and wanted them to see the difference. Zeia found out that they were reported dead and told Gondeon and Spider-Lady that. Gondeon said, "No. They were not dead. I will find them by myself out on the planet!"
- Cheetah II was on a rescue and search mission to find no Cheetah but find a wounded and unconscious Copycat unexpectedly. She reported the report that she found a wounded by making Cleodrina, Morphenia, Gondeon, and King Nilo come and find who is the wounded. She apologizes to them for not releasing the name and they give her any comfort in understanding Copycat is Cheetah II's sister.
- Quick Copycat Lady hears about Copycat, telling Spider-Lady that she can not take it anymore and becomes more depressing to know the not knowing about her husband, Glow Neon. She has no choice to disobey Spider-Lady's orders to stay here at the Zemo facility. She pilots a pod and flees to the universe.
- Glow Neon is not been heard and seen by the Zemo. The glow neons glow everywhere in the sky and on the planet. The Zemo can see the glow neons in the sky of the Earth. Spider-Lady wonders what it means and hopes he could tell us something. King Nilo reports a new report about the restricted area of glow neons and these Strangers were killed covering with glow neons and finding a destroyed stick and uniform. He says, "There is no body of Kyle Bryson. But the energy signature is here everywhere." Morphenia tells him that Glow Neon is just a Reech warrior with a glow neon element but this area looks massively huge glow neons. This is new."
- Zombique is reported found alive by the rescue and search mission. She is losing all her mind by seemingly goes back to a Yreeks transformation, but something is broken. She is something else. She is no longer a woman who we knew. She is just a mindless alien. Zombique attacks Cleodrina and Morphenia, but is taken down by Gondeon. Gondeon fixates Zombique's wounds during a broken transformation and prevents her from turning into a Yreeks replicate permanently. Gondeon tells them that her human form is destroyed permanently and now it is her alien form.
- Calico is saved by Cheetah, the one brings her alive along Bakh and Starwoman to the safe place. They walk away from the radiated area. As they start talking bad about Zeia, Calico tells them that they must be wrong about Zeia and lets them know that Calico has been thru the same situation that they now have. Calico makes them see the difference and think that is strange to know Calico little by little. While Gondeon finds the trials of Bakh and Starwoman at the beginning and feels doubt himself to think Zeia may be right that they might be dead. King Nilo finds another trial from his scent by telling Gondeon that they escape from the bomb from here. Gondeon fears that his high hopes get him crushed if he find them dead later. Cleodrina reports a new trial of Cheetah here with two unknowns and needs King Nilo's scent on two unknowns. King Nilo comes to a point where Cleodrina stands and says that is impossible. Cleodrina asks King Nilo what is it. King Nilo says Bakh and Starwoman were here. This is like a days ago. Refreshed. Gondeon asks them who are they at this point. King Nilo tells Gondeon that Bakh and Starwoman meets Cheetah at this point while they are fighting against the same Strangers. Until the rescue and search mission party finally finds the last trial where Calico is saved by the Cheetah while Bakh and Starwoman fighting against the Strangers, Quick Copycat Lady reports a report to Spider-Lady that Bakh, Starwoman, Calico, and Cheetah are possibly alive. This shocks Zeia and Spider-Lady to hear Zeia's three pupils and enemy Calico possibly alive from Quick Copycat Lady. Gondeon asks Q.C.C.L. if they faked their deaths and staged the place, why did they do it.

- Vogue Woman is ordered to see Spider-Lady about finding these members going in hide in the Earth from the Zemo. She is shocked to hear the name Lady Liuwa among them.
- Two aliens appearing nowhere of the sky and introducing to the Xia--Celeb and Celes. They used their ray gun by shooting Vich, Physique, and others, making them disappear from the Earth, and imprisoning them in the Strangers' secret tube.
