

TEEN SF HEROES: D.A.R.Y.L., EXPLORERS & THE GOONIES

STARLOG

DG5
UK
£1.95
K49112

THE SCIENCE FICTION UNIVERSE

$2.95 U.S./$3.50 CANADA

NUMBER 97

AUGUST

Michael J. Fox
zooms BACK TO THE FUTURE!

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW MEL GIBSON
on MAD MAX
BEYOND THUNDERDOME:
"He's a killer with a code of ethics!"

COCOON
Ron Howard unwraps
his fantasy hit

CHRIS WALKEN
Bond villain admits:
"I wanted to be 007!"

RED SONJA
Her sidekick in swordplay

LIFEFORCE
Soulsuckers from space

Special Previews:
THE BLACK CAULDRON
Disney's animated epic

FRIGHT NIGHT
The vampire next door

Plus: Win THE STUFF

FUTURE LIFE
Special:
Sally Ride leads women
into space

ALL NEW! more pages

The new neighbor is Jerry Dandrige (Chris Sarandon).

ALL FRIGHT NIGHT PHOTOS: COPYRIGHT 1985 COLUMBIA PICTURES

There are new people in the old Hopkins place next door. They moved in by night—and with good reason.

Charlie Brewster (William Ragsdale) knows the nature of his new neighbor. He has armed himself to battle this vampire—and perhaps, if he's lucky, to live to see morning.

Fortunately, Charlie has friends: Amy Petersen (Amanda Bearse), the girl he loves, and Peter Vincent (Roddy McDowall), the Fright Night terror flick TV show host he idolizes.

"Fright Night"

Charlie and horror actor-turned-TV host Peter Vincent (Roddy McDowall) venture into the vampire's abode in hopes of ending the supernatural threat.

But a vampire is not easily destroyed.

And when he gets angry, there's hell to pay.

It's just like the horror movies in which Peter Vincent once starred, but now, the monsters are real. And it's Fright Night (opening August 2).

SPECIAL PREVIEW

The moon is full. The sky is dark. And your next door neighbor is a vampire.