Dayle narrating- there are times that children love and adults hate for some reason but we all go through it like Birthdays, Halloween or Easter. Well my birthday is in three days time and I'm here on 1/11/2009AD to tell you of events that happened last night Halloween. This is only to be viewed if Earth and the Head Spys die and this is in some planet.

This is the Head Spy Halloween like no other

Dayle Matt and Maisie

GP Auditorium 9AM

Matt Maisie and I decided to perform Skycycle It's Terror Time again.

(Maisie and Dayle)

You hear the screeching of an owl,

You hear the wind begin to howl,

You know there's zombies on the prowl,

And it's terror time again,

They've got you running though the night,

(All Three)

It's terror time again,

And you just might die of fright,

It's a terrifying time,

(Maisie)

You hear the beating of your heart,

You know the screamings gonna start,

Here comes the really scary part,

(Dayle)

Cause it's terror time again,

They've got you running through the night,

It's terror time again,

Oh, you just might die of fright,

It's a terrifying time,

(All Three)

All the trees begin to moan,

And the monsters grunt and groan,

Rotting faces full of slime,

Don't you know it's terror time,

(Matt)

And it's terror time again,

They've got you running through the night,

Yes, it's terror time again,

Oh, you just might die of fright,

(All Three)

It's a terrifying time!!!!

'That was good guys' Maisie said 'In 10 Hours
