

Episode 1: A Jurassic World

We see a compy running through the street in between and around people's legs, until it runs into a now adult Darius Bowman.

Darius drops all of the stuff in his grocery bag, and we see a T.Shirt with Isla Nublar on it

Darius: "Us six campers; Me (Darius), Brooklyn, Sammy, Ben, Yasmina, and Kenji, were stranded on Isla Nublar for six months. We had to face multiple killer dinos, as well as hunters. When we escaped Isla Nublar at the end..". We realized our escape was only the beginning of our adventures. We lost everything to save dinosaurs, but eventually, we made it back to civilization. Wu was punished for creating E750, MantahCorp was shut down, and much more unfolded, until where we are now.

Three years ago, the earth shattering events of Mt. Sibos eruption occurred, but luckily, some dinosaurs survived, and roam our cities and forests today... Granted, some, shouldn't be...

Of us... There's Brooklyn, world famous movie director, and vlogger, and Ben, professional stunt person, often working for Brooklyn

Ben: "Okay, it didn't go that bad"

Brooklyn: "Are you kidding Ben, you broke seven chairs on the jump"

Ben: "Three, to be precise"

Darius: "And then there's Yasmina, multi medal athlete, and artist, and then Sammy, world renowned author and motivational speaker"

Sammy: "Highscore! That was great yaz!"

Yasmina: "Eh... Could've been better"

Darius: "and me. I've been working at the excavation site with Alan Grant, where we recently found a Tyrannosaurus with Giganotosaurus teeth in it"

Archaeologists looking in shock at the T.Rex Skeleton

Darius: "And then Kenji, the only one of us to not survive the incidents, He gave his life to save us, and the world"

Campers at the grave, but Kenji's dad not to be present

Darius: "when Dr. Burton said that our escape was only the beginning of what MantahCorp has in stock for us, we never knew what he meant, but I have a strange feeling that sooner or later, we will..."

New Camp Cretaceous Intro Plays

Brooklyn: "Ben, you've got to be kidding, did you even look at the damage you did?"

Ben: "Duh, but you said that there should be as much damage as possible"

Brooklyn: "And why would I say that?"

Ben: "you said 3d animation was too unrealistic, so we need damage to make it dramatic and realistic"

Brooklyn: "You're twisting my words, I never said that, you just can't be held accountable"

Ben: "Maybe That's why I need a higher pay"

Brooklyn: "How is that even relevant?"

Be: "You know what? I qui-"

Brooklyn: "Hold on, gotta take this"

On phone call

Brooklyn: "Hey D, how's it going!"

Darius: "Good, how 'bout you guys"

Brooklyn: "Other than Ben quitting, pretty good. We've been getting Collin to help with season 4, since he did just finish the script for his movie"

Darius: "Great, Me and Alan found some cool skeletons and are just delivering them to the museum now. We should be ready to meet with you guys soon"

Background

Ben: Give me that

In phone call

Ben: "Wait, since when is everyone meeting

Darius: "Brooklyn didn't tell you, we're all meeting for dinner tonight on the coast

Ben: "Nice, see you there"

30 Miles North

Sammy: "What are you talking about yaz, that was probably one of the best scores you've gotten yet!"

Yaz: "Sammy, the point of athletics is to be be the best, to beat highscores"

Sammy: "But you can't deny that you almost beat the world record"

Yaz: "Well yes, but I wish I had done just a little bit better"

Sammy: "Well, you have that meet on the 28th, maybe you'll beat your highscore then"

Yaz: "You know what sammy, you're absolutely right, I'll try"

Sammy: "Sorry, someone's calling me

On phone

Sammy: "Hey, B, what's up!"

Brooklyn: "Well Ben broke seven chairs, and quit, but I wanted to know if everything is good with you guys?"

Sammy: "Yaz almost beat her highscore, and my book is selling pretty well

Brooklyn: "Great! Are we still all meeting for dinner tonight?"

Sammy: "Sure!"

Yaz: "See you there!"

San Francisco Natural History Museum

Darius hangs up on Brooklyn

Alan: "So are we all meeting tonight?"

Darius: "Yep, I just need to get some stuff organized with the fossils"

Alan: "We have teams for that. Do you want to see some of the stuff that we've found"

Darius "Sure!"

Alan activates IPad

Alan: "First thing we found were two baryonyx hunting together"

Swipes IPad screen

Alan: "Then we found a Carnotaurus with a scar on its head, right near the nostrils"

Darius: "Huh, Just like toro"

Alan: "Who's Toro"

Darius: "Toro is the carnotaurus we fought"

Alan: "So that's what it was called"

Swipes IPad

Alan: "Then, a Giganotosaurus with T.Rex bite marks. We lined up all of the skeletons we found of the giga and T. Rex, and they're a match, meaning the giga killed this very tyrannosaurus 65 million years ago!"

Swipes IPad

Alan: "The last thing we "Coughs", our alternate U.S. team found, was an ankylosaurus skeleton with a slightly deformed bump on its head, just like bumpy"

Darius: "how do you know who bumpy is?"

Alan: "Saw it written on a tree while I was on nublar"

Darius: "Huh, the more you know"

Door Creaks as Troodons Enter

Darius: "Do you hear that"

Alan: "What?"

Darius turns alan's body

Alan: "Run"

At the restauraunt

Sammy: "Where are Darius and Alan, they said they'd be here a half hour ago"

Brooklyn: "They need to finish up, whatever they're doing with those fossils"

In the museum

Both run

Alan: What the heck are those things

At the restaurant

Ben: "They should be here soon"

Yasmina: "I hope"

At the museum

Darius: "Troodons, I didn't even know that they existed here, but that opens up a number of possibilities in terms of creatures that we never saw on nu-"

Alan: "Darius, just keep running until we get to the exit"

At restaurant

Sammy: "Why are they running so fast?"

Yaz: "you put a tracker on their phones?"

Ben: "No, they're right there"

Darius "From far away": Everyone, get out

Pans into the troodon's eyes

Sammy: "What the heck are those things, and why are their eyes so big, and black, ew"

Alan: "You heard darius. RUN!!!"

All jump in to separate cars

Darius: Head onto a highway, the troodons won't want to follow us there

In separate car

Yaz: Sammy, head to the golden gate bridge, there'll be too many cars, the dinos won't come near

Both cars speeding to the destination

Troodons stop, smell something else, and run in the opposite direction

Moves outward, becomes a news broadcast

News announcer: We have confirmation that these species are Troodon Pectinodon, which were not present on Isla Nublar when the eruption occurred, three years ago, making these our second newly cloned species

In cars:

Sammy: "Where did the troodons go?"

Yasmina: "Should we follow them?"

Brooklyn: "Absolutely not!"

Yasmina: "Which means we'll absolutely be following them

Speeds of to follow the troodons

Darius: "Where are they going?"

Alan: "To follow the troodons, I think

Ben: How about one last dino chase for old time's sake

Darius calls Sammy

Darius: "You guys are tracking the troodons, right?"

Sammy: "Exactly, we think if we find their nests, we can possibly capture the troodons

Darius: "Where are we headed

Yasmina: "We're listening to the news, they've found some more troodons near the east side

Ben: "Headed there already"

Arrives

Ben gets out of the car

Ben: Quick, grab the cages

Darius: You sure?

Ben: "Positively certain that this will work"

Helicopter appears

Helicopter merc: "All citizens, abandon the area"

Tranquilizer gas falls

Darius: "Are you ok ben?"

Ben: "I'm sure, this gas doesn't make me asslee..."

Ben falls

All: BEN!

Cuts to Black

Brooklyn: -up ben, please wake up, I'm sorry for what-

Ben: Gotcha! Can't believe you fell for it

Darius: Come on, that's not funny! And how is that possible, its real knockout gas

Ben: It never works on me, that's something you've probably never heard

Sammy: Oh ben, so great to have you back

Ben: First, I was gone for under ten seco-

Yaz: Actually, twenty eight

Ben: Fine, twenty eight, and did you not just hear what I said

Sammy: Nope! Now let's hug it out!

Hugs

Sammy: Well that felt great!

Yaz: The hug?

Alan: I think sammy means how we went on a mini adventure

Darius: Well, I don't think that that's all we're gonna get out of this day

Medium carnivore roar heard from far away

Brooklyn: Should we see what it is

Yasmina: Why not, it's not like we just chased a flock of fluffy big-eye-o-sauruses

Darius: TROODON, and Why Not!

Alan: Onto the city heart

Darius: It sounds like its coming from the direction of the golden gate

Brooklyn: You sure

Darius: Yes... I know this city like the back of my hand

Brooklyn: Because they don't know exactly where the eye-o-saurus' are right now

Shows phone

Ben: The Botanical Gardens

Sammy: There's gotta be a bunch of people there, we have to contain the lizards

Yaz: We cant run these, the knockout gas is stuck in the engine

Ben: That's not how cars work

Turns key

Not how most cars work*

Sammy: Same with this one

Darius: What's taking you guys so long, just run, seriously, it's right over there

Botanical Gardens

Brooklyn: I don't see the dinosaurs

Alan: Follow the screams,

Ben: Haha very funny

Alan: Listen

Sammy: It's getting clos-

All: Shhhhhh

Sammy: Seriously

Screams approach and run away, Cryolophosaurus Seen

Darius: It's a Cryolophosaurus Elliotti, another Non-Nublar Species

Ben: Does That Matter now?

Yasmina: Run!

All run to another edge to see another Cryo

And another

And another

Brooklyn: We're stuck, where do we go

Alan: Those two have the biggest gap, go there

Sammy: You sure

Alan: I've done this... Well actually REXY saved me in this situation, so never. Just trust me

Darius: They're not attacking us, they're attacking each other

Ben: The Cryos aren't attacking, I think that they're playing with each other

Yasmina: You've probably never seen this one before, Alan

Alan: Actually, I have seen this kind of behavior from species on Isla Sorna, those two individuals Malcolm mentioned in his book

Darius: But you've still never seen this in medium carnivore species

Alan: Correct, they're usually much more aggressive

Ben: Let's leave before that helicopter knocks us out again

The rest of you guys*

From Helicopter: DFW in position to contain the reptiles, all civilians evacuate in a 100 yard radius from the helicopter

Sammy: You heard them, go

Now at a safe zone

Darius: I wonder where these new creatures have been coming from

Yasmina: I guess only time will tell whether we find out or not

Oakland:

Darius: These new species, we've never seen these ones before, something feels different about them.

Brooklyn: If I said I didn't believe you, I would be lying for sure

Darius: We've also never seen these variants on Sorna or Muerta, that rules out your dad... right

Brooklyn: After Muerta, I never heard of him, Rumors flew that he lived, but they're saying another guy has taken over Mantah, still, no word on BioSyn

Darius: Ok, I'ma head out, just keep me updated if you find something else

Darius Gets in car and drives away, pans above the city of Oakland, and flies back to the Botanical Gardens

Pans Out from the botanical gardens to a building with scaffolding

The building says Beware, Dinosaurs Present...

Episode 2: An Adventure To Remember

New Camp Cretaceous Intro plays

On a laptop

Darius: So what do we have in terms of other species so far?
We have Fukuisaurus, a marine creature, and one unidentifiable species...

Ben: So what? We've been seeing like three variants of Pteranodon, what's to say that this isn't a new mutation, or something burton could've made

Yasmina: Tell me I'm wrong, but he said Pterodactyl, not Pteranodon

Brooklyn: Yaz, You've spent too much time with darius over the past two days

Ben: Still, they're the same species

Alan: Actually not, they're much smaller than the two pteranodon types we saw on Sorna, roughly the same size as Masrani's Pteranodons

Ben: So they're the same

Darius: Not exactly

Brooklyn: Ben, you're wrong, leave it to the dino experts

Darius: Well, Alan and I were going to go try and see if we could identify some more species

Brooklyn: I would love to go!

Sammy: Me and yaz were also going to look at that cool building near the botanical gardens. Its invasive, but it's still pretty cool

Ben: I'll go with, big dinosaurs aren't my deal

Brooklyn: Okay then!

Botanical Gardens

Ben: I know this place is massive, but where's the new building?

Yasmina: Its next to the polo field, like right in the middle of the gardens

Sammy: How had we never seen that place

Yasmina: Well, we were pretty much on the northeast corner

Ben: Where? I don't have a compass

Sammy: Right around here, I think

Yasmina: Actually, somewhere arou-

Ben: Is that the building?

Yasmina: Yep

Sammy: Well, that does look like a pretty cool tennis arena

Ben: You mean polo, right?

Sammy: Whatever sport they do in there...

In Oakland

Darius: So what do you have on the other three species

Alan: Not much, we have one with a large nasal horn, and a marine one

Darius: What about the third one

Alan: We know nothing about it, only some teeth which would be Cryolophosaurus teeth

Darius: Are you sure that the one with the horn wasn't a Sinoceratops

Alan: Absolutely sure, it looks much more like a Styracosaurus

Darius: Is there a possibility that it could be a Centrosaurus?

Alan: It can't be, there was no horn over the eyes

Shouts to far away

Darius: Brooklyn, are you okay?

Brooklyn (Speeds Up to catch up) Yeah, I'm okay, I just don't really like talking about dinosaurs that much, it's not really my thing, and it just makes me think of my dad. I know he was an awful person, but I just miss him so much. I know it's been five years since I've seen him, but, just the thought that my dad is dead

Darius: I'm sorry you still think of that

Alan: Not to disturb your conversation, but did you see that?

Brooklyn? What?

Alan: That massive dolphin, didn't you see it?

Dolphin Surfaces

Darius, holds brooklyn while she's crying, its beautiful

Alan, wait, dolphins never come so far into the bay

Darius: That means...

Alan, They're Ichthyosaurs

Brooklyn: Look there, there's another group

Points far out to sea

Darius: Those ones are massive

Alan: I think they're adults

Brooklyn: Adult what?

Alan: Adult Shonisaurus', the largest marine creatures ever known, after the mosasaurus

Brooklyn: They're beautiful

At The New Building

Ben: You can't be seriously thinking about sneaking in

Yaz: I'm with ben, it's also illegal

Sammy: But we know they're hiding something, they've blocked it on every map app. Whoever's building it is hiding something, that's a given, it's just what?

Yaz: But what if we get arrested or something, we don't know what's going on

Turns to ben

Yaz: Actually, I'm with you, it's an awful idea

Ben: Obviously

Yaz: So, how do we convince her to not go

Ben: Too late

Points to sammy walking into the building's scaffolding

Ben: It wouldn't hurt to atleast check it out

Yaz: I guess...

Sammy: Are you coming or what (While climbing up scaffolding)

Yaz: This is still an awful idea

Ben: Totally agree

Sammy: Look, there's a path here, lets see to the inside

Climb up, and catch up to sammy

Ben: Those cages look awfully big for horses...

Yaz: And there's no hay in them

Sammy: There's no horses yet, plus the arena is so big, why would they want a small enclosure, it would make them more comfortable to have a big enclosure

Police Officer: San Francisco PD, You are under arrest for Trespassing on Private Property

Cuts to Oakland

Darius: Huh... Someone's calling me

Picks Up Phone

Darius: Brand, How's it going, haven't seen you in a while

Brand: Look behind you

Darius (looks at brand) Alan, Brooklyn, Meet brand, my brother

Brooklyn: Nice to meet you

Brand: You too

Brand: Alan Grant, I've heard much about you, Darius was always talking about your research, especially that with Dr. Sattler

Alan: I prefer not to think of her, but yes, we had some good times

Brooklyn: Awkward

Darius: Where to now?

At the Building

Police Officer: State your names and presence

Ben: Benjamin Fitzgerald Pincus

Yasmina: Yasmina Fadoula

Police Officer: Brown Hair, what's your name:

Sammy: Sammy Gutierrez

Police officer: and why are you here

Ben: umm... our friend Kenji told us to meet him around here

Police Officer: I'll go consult my manager

Walks away

Yaz: What the heck ben? He's dead

Ben: I'm sorry, it's the first thing I could think about

Sammy: That was a close call, a really close call, let's just hope he doesn't come back

Ben: There he is

Sammy: Run!

Sammy, ben, and yaz running away from the police officer

Sammy: Quickly go down the scaffolding!

Yasmina: We gotta outrun him

Police Officer: Stop Running!

Out of breath

Sammy: Come on, run out of the door

Ben: Its locked

Yaz: I can pick pretty much any lock on this earth, I can do this one

Sammy: You sure

Yaz: Yes, just give me your bobby pin

Sammy: I don't wear a bobby pin-

All: Brooklyn Does...

Oakland

Darius: Look over there

Alan: What's that a herd of

Darius: I would have to assume Fukuisaurus, or another small hadrosaur

Alan: That's definitely Fukuis

Brooklyn: They're running from something

Roar

Brand: Did you hear that

Brooklyn: Lets see what it is?

Creature rams through a wall and chases the Fukuisaurus'

Darius / Alan: That's an Altispinax

Alan holds the teeth in front of it

Zooms into the teeth of the Altispinax... they're the same

Building

Yasmina: Ben! Get me a rock

Ben: Are you sure that's a good idea, last time we did that, a flock of Dimo-

Sammy: Ben, just get her the rock

Ben: Even better, we got a beam

All ram the beam at the door and escape

Sammy: We're out!

Police officer: where do you think you're going

Yasmina: Ben, put the beam through the door

Ben: On it

Puts the beam through the door, locks the officer in, while yaz and sammy run away

Sammy: Let's go back to the others

Oakland

Brooklyn: If we don't move it won't see us

Brand: Too late

Points to the Altispinax's head glaring towards them..

All: Run!!!!!!!

All running through the flock of Fukuisaurus

Vehicle pulls up behind the Altispinax

Ben: You better take on something your own size, or speed

Altispinax glares towards the car which Ben, Sammy, and Brooklyn are in, as ben leans out the window

Ben grabs flare, as the girls drive away with the car

All ensue on a chase, and eventually arrive to a place blockaded by the police officers seen at the facility

Police officer: Stop immediately... or

DFW Helicopter: Clear the area for sedation

Ben: Quick... roll up the windows

Police officer: Oh no-

Falls to the ground sedated, alongside the Altispinax

Darius, Brand, Brooklyn, and Alan arrive

Alan: Who the heck are these people? They're not SFPD

Grabs the badge

Brand: The name is blurred out, but those don't look like PD badges from any city

Brooklyn: We'll find out soon...

Back at HQ Downtown

Brooklyn: Ben, what did you guys see

Ben: Well, we got arrested by a random person dressed oddly, not like the police, and the polo arena doesn't look like it's for horses...

Sammy: We will definitely not be going back there any time soon, especially not after they'll amp up security

Yaz: That's for sure!

Pans to the building

Police officer (Tag says Samuel Wilson) (While looking at the tablet)

Mount up the logo people. We don't have all day

Operative: We're going as fast as we can

Samuel: Lets see how it's coming along

Massive sign.

Operatives uncover it and it says "PhasoTech"

Screen Blackens...
