

Episode 12: Homecoming

Darius: How many times can this go on, PhasoTech introduces something, and we figure out about it

Daniel: Enough that it's still entertaining to see your reactions

Ben: Ha Ha, hilarious

Brooklyn: So, this was your endgame, the whole time, well kept secret, I must say

Daniel: For once, thank you. Would you like to meet some of our contestants

Sammy: No, actually

Daniel: I'll take your no as a yes!

Daniel, Samuel, and Lewis walk as the security guards follow, towards Pen 3

Daniel: Care to meet some of our finest specimens

Daniel: The Troodon Pec-, oh I'm sorry you've already met those it seems, well, you haven't, you've met some Nanuqsaurus, and we have a whole flock here with us, ready to fight!

Daniel: Boys, put them in

Daniel opens the door, as each guard puts one of the campers into the pen, and closes the door

Darius: Look at you, you're so adorable (as a Nanuqsaurus walks up to him, and another, and another

Brooklyn: Uhh, Darius?

Darius looks up, and sees two adult Nanuqsaurus' walking towards him

Brooklyn bangs on the door as Daniel opens it up, with a massive grin

Sabrina: Kon, get that grin off of your face, its not funny

Daniel: Says you

Samuel: Sir, should they be, escorted, to their seats right around now?

Daniel: Soon, we'll give them a tour of the facilities

Buzzing

Lewis: Uhh, I gotta take this

Picks up phone, and walks to the corner, face to the wall

Lewis: What (Whispering)

Other Line: So, we're sending the T. Rex to San Fran, are you sure that's the best idea?

Lewis: No, of course not, that's an awful idea, I told you to send her to the valley.

Other Line: Just... remember to talk to Daniel about the chips, and everything else

Lewis hangs up the phone

Pen 11

Handler 1: Can no one else feed this thing? Does it have to be me?

Handler 2: Yes, it's only going to take a second

Handler one opens the cage, and closes it, as the lights go out

Handler 2: Ugh, can these lights stay on for one second?

Crunching and screaming, as the Scorpios roars from the dark

Main Hall

Daniel: Costing 846 Million to construct, this thing costs more than your average baseball stadium. It took 24 months to build this monstrosity, and lucky you, you arrived just before we took the scaffolding down. At roughly 51'000 seats, this stadium is just shy of the Oakland colliseum, just a few blocks from your house, Darius

Darius: how... do you know where I live?

Daniel: I can do digging as well

Daniel: Anyways...

Lewis: Kon, we need to talk, in private

Away

Lewis: At BioSyn, we, have some technology that you might want to get in to, and if Biosyn gets a cut of the profits from here, and our technologies, we could just give it to you more or less Daniel: Go on, I'm liking what I'm hearing.

Lewis: When mills gave us blood samples of the original indoraptor, we found traces of human DNA, in the blood, and not just a loose skin cell, actual human DNA

Daniel: What does that have to do with anything?

Lewis: We've isolated some of the requirements necessary from the Indoraptor, and from the estate, and now, we're ready to start human cloning

Daniel has a surprised, but scared expression on his face

Lewis: Daniel... what did you do

Daniel: We, thought we found chimpanzee, not human

Lewis, well it appears you're wrong

Daniel sighs in relief

Lewis: And our second technology we're willing to offer, we call it V-55, its this special chip, and we use it to lure our dinosaurs, internally, and with this technology, you could bring up the stakes, and the profits ten fold. Its no risk, high reward!

Daniel: I'll see to your offer once everything goes smoothly

Bang from underground

Samuel: What was that?

Daniel: The indoraptor, it must be hungry

Pen 14

Daniel: I'm going to assume you kids haven't met this one yet?

Brooklyn: You'd be surprised, we foiled your little plan at testing one

Samuel: See, I called it

The indoraptor comes towards the bars

Daniel: This one, its fused from the Indominus, and that blue raptor I'm so sure you've already met before

Ben: And the arms?

Daniel: Uhh, Giganotosaurus, its arms are abnormally long, oddly the Indominus didn't inherit it

Scorpions screeches

Daniel opens up a door, and walks down a hallway, to see the Scorpions Pen

Handler 2: Finally, you're here, it... ate the other guy

Daniel: WHAT?

Handler 2: The lights went out, as he was in the cage, a fuse blew or something, and it woke the scorpions up, and ate him

Yasmina: Well thats gruesome

Handler 2: Do I know you

Yasmina: No, no you don't

Battle Arena

A Velociraptor jumps onto a Microceratus, and a crunching sound is heard, as the audience is in shock

One of the pens opens, as a guard places some meat, as one quilled, and two JP3 Female raptors rush to the cage, and it closes

Announcer: And our second battle! First, a medium carnivore, nicknamed Elvisaurus for its crest, Cryolophosaurus. Our second contestant, known for its back and tail spikes, and its walnut sized brain, the Stegosaurus

Crowd boos

Two other gates open, one with four Cryolophosaurus, and one with three Stegosaurus. One cryolophosaurus runs ahead, and one

Stegosaurus runs ahead, as it bites down on the neck of one, instantly killing it

Pen 11

Daniel: Assuming you heard the ridiculously loud announcer, the next battle is Cryolophosaurus, and Stegosaurus. I'll give you a sneak peak, big and small all in the fight, actually, I'll just show you one of them

All walk to pen 3, past the indoraptor screeching at them, past the Velociraptors, and past the Altispinax

Daniel: Samuel, before I forget, get someone to tranq and move the indoraptor to pen 7 on the other side

Samuel walks away and nods

Sammy: Why... are you moving it

Daniel: 3, 2, 1

Sammy: Oh my god you're evil!

Daniel: Excuse me?

Yasmina: You're going to make them fight, aren't you

Daniel: Maybe yes, maybe no, who knows?

Daniel: Guards, escort them to their seats, if you wouldn't mind, but leave this one

Points to Darius

Arena

A Stegosaurus whips one of the Cryolophosaurus' faces, and it falls to the ground, as another flips the Stego over, and bites the neck, and the final stego tries to ram the cryos, but gets bitten and falls, as more meat is placed, and the Cryo's rush to their pen

Pen 11

The campers are pulled away, as Sabrina tries to escape, but gets pulled anyways

Daniel: Darius, so, how's it going

Darius: What is this about, my house, my brother, my mom?

Daniel: No, not about that

Daniel: We at PhasoTech need someone, with the morality, but also with the knowledge, so, would you consider coming with us, to Chile?

Darius: You must be out of your mind if you think I'd accept

Daniel: Its not that outland-

Darius hits Daniel in the face, and runs

Lewis: What the heck am I watching

Daniel: (To the last guard) What are you waiting for, GET HIM!

The guard runs after Darius, as the announcer says "Its time for our third match of the day, Nanuqsaurus, juvenile and adult, versus DRacorex, and Pachycephalosaurus!"

Darius stops at Pen 3 to watch the nanuqsaurus leaving, and keeps running

Camper's seats

Security Guard 1: Sit

Ben: Jeez, big deal

All of the campers sit down

Sabrina looks at the arena, shaking, and not moving

Sammy: Sabrina? You okay?

Sabrina: What do you think? I'm just freaking out seeing all of this unfold, I mean in just a few minutes one of the creatures I raised from birth is probably going to be killed right before my eyes, and I can't do anything but watch, I don't think any of you can even imagine what I'm going through

Brooklyn: You're right, we can't, the least we can do is maybe even help you through this

As a Nanuqsaurus screeches as it's pushed to the wall by the final Pachycephalosaurus

Guard: I'm going to go take a wazz, stay here or else

Ben looks down, and then gets a grin and looks up

Darius runs through the main hall and turns a corner so the guard cant see him

Darius sees the campers waving to him, and rushes there, and goes to the sixth seat

Darius: What did I miss?

Brooklyn points to the Altispinax rushing out of its cage towards the Styracosaurus

Main hall

Lewis: Daniel, I hope you know what you're doing, its your problem if anything goes wrong

Daniel: Of course, things will not have gotten out of hand by the end, I promise, swear on my life, even

Lewis: Just remember Kon, the blood's on your hands, not mine, I'll be headed to the pressbox for now. Wilson! Care to join?

Samuel: Uhh, I'll be staying with Kon for now

Lewis: See you at the end, I guess

Lewis enters the elevator, and the door closes

Stadium

Darius: How long can this go on, they're suffering, and we're suffering watching all of this go down, they don't even realise what they're doing

Crunch

Ben: Ugh, I bit on a kernel

Brooklyn: How can you be eating popcorn at a time like this, seriously

Announcer: And the next battle is... One of PhasoTech's greatest creatures, the Altispinax, versus the Styracosaurus!

Sabrina: Oh lord I can't watch this

Sabrina gets up

Yasmina: She raised it from birth, and I can't watch this either

Everyone else gets up

Brooklyn: Ben, leave the popcorn

Ben puts down the popcorn, as the screen blurs the rest as the Altispinax rushes towards the Styracosaurus

Brooklyn drags Ben out by his arm, as the others head to the elevator. As Ben walks in, Sabrina says "I have an Idea" and smashes the elevator buttons, disabling it, and stomps on the glass bottom, as it breaks, everyone falls to the bottom of the elevator shaft, the bottom level

Bottom Level

Daniel: Sam, how many tickets sold today

Samuel: We're on the verge of sold out, so about 52500 tickets, above and beyond what we were expecting

Samuel: Daniel, you really did it, We were expecting close to 30K, and you blew that out of the water, now, what did you do for this one to work?

Background

Darius: what are they talking about

Brooklyn: Profits, or some business stuff I think

Sabrina tip-toes to the wall, but trips trying to go over a step, and Daniel sees her

Daniel: Carrière, what are you doing here?

Sabrina: Well, that's none of your business Kon.

Daniel: Shouldn't you be at your seats with those kids?

Darius: You would think

Daniel: What did you six do now?

Yasmina: Elevator

The campers walk away

Samuel: Can you believe them?

Daniel: I wouldn't be surprised

Daniel catches up

Daniel: So, how much would you want to not say what happened at Chile, fifteen grand each? I can do that.

Brooklyn: We don't want your money, we just want you to shut this down, its inhumane and truly evil

Daniel: Well that's not happening, so do whatever you want

Darius: We're leaving, and telling the authorities

Daniel: Well, thats your own problem, not mine. The airports a metro ride away, and I know people who know people, we can get you arrested with real SFPD

Samuel: Give them a minute

The others huddle up

Darius: You know what? No. We're not going to "bow down" to you and let your dystopian battle arena go, not with so many people at risk-

Daniel: Excuse me?

Daniel: You say at risk... can you elaborate?

Brooklyn: Don't play dumb, we've seen what the Scorpios can do, some plastic walls aren't going to stop it from getting out, you're risking twenty thousand people and you don't even care about it

Samuel: Okay there you go!

Pushes the campers aside, into the bathroom

Ben: What... are you doing?

Samuel: Getting rid of a problem

Locks the bathroom door

Daniel: Finally, peace and quiet

Pressbox

Lewis: I don't have all day, and I'm only here for the main event, how long is this one going to take PhasoTech Agent: I don't know, it could take an hour, or a minute, it depends on how resilient they each are. If one goes for the neck, its game over,

Lewis: Fair enough

Bathroom

Darius: Come on, we have to figure a way out of this place

Ben: And how are we supposed to do that?

Air Conditionning turns on

Brooklyn opens up the air vent

Alan: So... where exactly are we going?

Darius: The platform that lowers the dinosaurs

Sammy: So... we're basically going to be stuck with the dinosaurs?

Darius: Not if we make it out at the right time

The Umbrella Academy 'Apocalypse' plays, as Darius is in front, and the others climb through the vent, and open up at the platform

Darius looks at a camera and sees the Altispinax kill a Styracosaurus, and walks to where the platform will be, and signals for the others to come on

Yasmina refuses to come on

Brooklyn: Yaz, this isn't the time

Yasmina: Someone needs to man the controls, and someone has to stay behind, I missed this, I'm not missing anything else

Yasmina throws Brooklyn a Walkie Talkie Yasmina adjusts to channel seven

Yasmina: Seven

Battle Arena

Drones lure the Altispinax towards the platform, and sedate it, as on the platform, the campers fight off two guards, and Yasmina brings down the platform.

Pressbox

Announcer: And now it's time for the MAIN EVENT! (as the crowd cheers). We have some secretive species upcoming! First, cloned in 2017 with the Indominus rex and Velociraptor, is a new variant of the king of death itself; The INDORAPTOR (Crowd cheers), and from the tunnels of Nublar, the secret project, the SCORPIOS REX (As the crowd boos)

The gates open up for the two creatures to rush out, as the 'Season 6 Final Battle' track plays, and the creatures roar as the main track hits

The Scorprios runs towards the Indoraptor, as the platform is raised, with the dead Styracosaurus and the campers, in between the Scorprios and the Indoraptor. (Bars 4-9 1) The campers separate, as the scorprios climbs onto the indoraptor, trying to stomp it to the ground, as the campers watch in horror. (Bars 10-13 1) The Scorprios is knocked off as the Indoraptor tries to use its sickle claw, as Sabrina says "They never said it had that", as the campers look at her. The Scorprios dodges, and slashes its back, and runs off, trying to head to its paddock (Bars 14-17) In Slo-Mo, the Indoraptor chases after the Scorprios, as the audience sees the campers and starts screaming and booing them, as the campers try and run to the opposite paddock, and Yasmina sees this, on the screen, as the Indoraptor corners the Scorprios. (Bars 18-22) Sabrina, realising what must happen, screams to the creatures, which look at her, and rush towards her, she dodges at the last second as Darius and Ben pull her away, whilst Sammy and Brooklyn try and find a way to escape. (Bars 23-26 1) Sammy and Brooklyn bang on the acrylic plastic sheets, as people try and hit on the acrylic plastic to break it and help them, as the others come, and the Scorpios turns towards them, and rushes towards the plastic. (Bars 23-26 2) The Indoraptor hits it, as the Scorpios tries to bite onto its neck, as Yasmina looks at the screen showing Daniel, who says 'Everything going as planned for once'. (Bars 4-9 2) Daniel opens a door to the arena, and shoots a flare distracting the creatures, as the campers run towards the door. (Bars 10-13 2) Darius trips as Daniel says 'oops' and tries to close the door, as the Scorpios, from behind claws at the door, and pries it open. (Bars 28-29) The indoraptor reaches in, and grabs daniel, and the scorpios attacks, jumping from a pole, jumping from a pole, the indoraptor drops him, as the scorpios accidentally quill's Daniel, knocking him a few feet to the side, as the campers run through the door, forgetting to close it. (Final bars) In Thermal vision, the Scorpios sees the arena, and the door open, and runs through the door, and the Indoraptor follows, into the crowd, and the scorpios and indoraptor each individually grab people, as the campers watch from above, as the screen cuts to black

Credits Roll (With Pacific Rim: The Black inspired credits music)

Post Credit Scene

As the Scorpios and Indoraptor rampage, a mass is on the arena, Daniel Kon, A group of medics show up from the door onto the field and check daniel's pulse, as it reverberates, slowing down, as one of the medics says 'No, no, no, don't go!'. One medic injects Daniel with antivenom, and after a grueling ten seconds, he wakes up, and one medic, as the tone darkens says 'Oh, thank god you're alive, I don't know what I'd do without you sir', as Daniel says hoarsely 'Oh, that's still DAD to you'

Screen cuts to black with the S2-3 Ending Sound Effect
