

Episode 5: Blue Skies and Blazing Sands

Note: For this episode, the "Unrecognizable voice" is to be renamed as "PhasoTech CEO", and the campers spent roughly twelve hours sleeping in the closets of the facility, and the events take place roughly seventeen hours later

Desert Southwest of PhasoTech HQ

Ben: Yaz, Yaz, Yaz! Can you hear us?

Ben (Yelling) YAZ!

Darius: I don't think she can hear you

Sammy: How long have we been walking here

Alan: Precisely seven minutes

Turn around

PhasoTech facility very closeby,

Brooklyn: How in the heck is it that every time we look back it gets closer

Alan: It's really our brains tricking us into thi-

Darius: Come on, we've got to figure out what's in that genetics lab

Sammy: But it's not even visible, there's a rock face in front of us.

Is it like encircled by it/

Darius: I mean... I never saw that from up top, but who knows, it could be closer than we think

Brooklyn: Come on!

All running to the rock face

Darius puts his hand on one of the boulders, thinking about climbing.

Darius: We might as well climb over

Darius puts his hand up one higher, and his foot on that rock

A screeching sound is heard as the rocks pull back, in a square form, and separate right from left, and show a modern hallway

Brooklyn Jumps down

Brooklyn: What the heck... how... where...

Ben: Well what are we waiting for let's go i-

Alan grabs onto ben's arm- and points to a security camera

Alan: Someone get me a rock

Sammy grabs a rock and passes it to Alan

Alan Throws the rock, and misses

Repeat twice more, when he hits the camera

Alan: (whilst holding his hand in front of the door) All clear!

All walking in, with an intense light, until the door suddenly closes

Ben continues walking,

Ben: What? I want to see what's ahead

All follow ben

Near the end of the hall, they hear a gut wrenching screech...

Whatever is making that appears from behind a set of glass, revealing that the rock face is an enclosure

It moves its head into vision... walks by, and sees the campers.

Darius immediately realizes what it is by its telltale stripe, even with the separate colors he knew... the Indoraptor.

Darius: Oh my god... where did they get one of those

The Indoraptor screeches once again, looking directly at darius

Darius walks up to the glass, as the other campers say no!!

Darius puts his hand on the glass, the indoraptor observes, brings its claws to the glass, and then attempts to grab darius' head... only resulting in annoyance towards the Indoraptor

The Indoraptor passes by

Alan: What the heck is that thing

Darius: It's the Indoraptor, I saw logs of it in San Francisco, some guy knew a guy who knew about the Indoraptor, Miles or something. But anyways, it's a hybrid of the Indominus Rex and one of those raptors, this one, I'd assume the blue raptor, given the blue stripe and white skin

Darius: The original... When Wu came to Nublar to get the Indominus Rex and Scorpius Rex samples... he needed it to make the original version of this. In about 2018, he finished it, and it was let out, and killed

Brooklyn: But how did PhasoTech manage to clo-. Oh my god.

Sammy: What?

Brooklyn: My dad mentioned some Mills guy when I was with him... some estate in San Francisco... MantahCorp knew this was happening... they must have a deal with Pha-

Ben: Mantah was shut down six years ago, there's no way that they are back, half their staff is dead, and they have no HQ,

The indoraptor snarls, as a goat comes out from the Goat feeder... the campers see a very blurry person from the other side of the exhibit holding a button, but they can't identify his face.

Brooklyn: Who is that guy?

Sammy: I don't know... but his Mustache looks familiar

Darius: Quick, he's turning this way

All hide under desks

PhasoTech CEO (ThroughTablet) Ryan? Are you there? I see movement in the lab in the Indoraptor Facility. Samuel has the keys to the hallway, I have to head the other way around

Darius reaches up, grabs the Tablet, and mutes

Darius: Based on this map... it looks like this guy is headed straight here, from around, on the close side of the rock face

Ben: So how do we get around

All looking towards the indoraptor, swallowing the goat whole

Observatory

PhasoTech CEO: Where in the heck could Samuel have gone

Dials Samuel

PhasoTech CEO: Samuel! Where did you go, I need you to unlock the Genetics lab

Samuel: (Heavy Sighs) I'm in Tracking, Trying to figure out what's happening. Radio is down, and its communication is only possible through wire, and a few other methods

PhasoTech CEO: Samuel I don't care, just get to the Genetics lab. Ever since it was evacuated, no one has been able to get in. I've got to investigate something else over in the Indoraptor Lab

PhasoTech CEO: (Hangs up on Tablet) Now let's go see what's happening

Leaves the observatory

Laboratory

Darius: Ben, He's gone, lock the door

Ben: How is that supposed to be done

Darius: Follow me

Running towards the door

Darius: Come on, where's the lock

Reads through buttons

Outside

PhasoTech CEO: I swear to god if this door is locked-

Inside

Darius: Found it

Presses button

Darius: It's not locking!

Darius: Brooklyn! The badge

Brooklyn Runs towards Darius, throws it

Darius grabs the badge and scans, as they can hear the PhasoTech CEO

PhasoTech CEO (As door locks) NO!!! The train better not be locked
(Final sentence unheard by campers, as CEO walks away)

Ben: How do we know he's not waiting

Darius: I'd rather not try waiting and seeing. Sammy, go launch a few goats to distract the Indoraptor, Brooklyn, try finding one of the Acoustic guns that they usually have here

All do tasks

Darius, Ben, Brooklyn, Sammy, and Alan all walk out of the lab and into the indo raptor paddock, the Indoraptor chases the goats, and eats one, and another, and another.

Halfway through the paddock, the Indoraptor turns around, and sees the campers, it dashes towards the other campers

Ben: Oh Come on

All Run, Brooklyn Trips, and The Indoraptor chases her, and tackles her down. The Indoraptor tries to bite down on Brooklyn, when Ben shoots the acoustic gun away, the Indoraptor responds for a second, giving Brooklyn time to escape, but then turns back. It remains dazed, turning around, then back

Darius: Be quiet, light, and get to the gate

*All tip-toe to the gate, alan scans the badge on the fence
The fence makes a loud noise, alerting the Indoraptor, ignoring the acoustic gun*

The indo raptor runs to the now closing gate, and reaches its claw through the gate... and ben shoots it with a Tranq Dart

Ben: Did not expect it to do that

Outside of Building

PhasoTech CEO: Come on, this can't be getting any worse

Looks underneath him, sets his focus on a square depression in the ground

Stomps on the hole, sparks fly, and a staircase opens right in front of him

PhasoTech CEO: I'm so done with Samuel

Quickly walks downstairs

Outside the Facility

Darius (Whilst pointing to the Genetics lab) It's there that we need to go

Running towards the genetics lab, Brooklyn finds a metal arrow, pointing to a square

Brooklyn: What is that?

Ben: Might as well follow them

All following towards a square, Brooklyn steps on it... it opens to an underground passageway, they enter

Underground

PhasoTech CEO walking down the stairs, and meets Samuel

PhasoTech CEO: Samuel you- Just get me to the genetics lab as fast as possible

Samuel: I'm sorry, the next train arrives in two minutes

PhasoTech CEO: You're lucky this time...

Underground on way to the Genetics Lab

Darius: How far do you think it is

Ben: I don't think that much, there's an elevator ahead

All walk towards elevator

Press buttons... doors open

Enter Elevator, elevator music,

Doors open on main floor

All facing each other

Samuel: Ah... one Benjamin Pincus, and one Sammy Gutierrez

Samuel: Daniel, uh... Sir, can you identify the others

PhasoTech CEO Walks forwards... the campers feel Deja-vu

PhasoTech CEO: Please Samuel Call me Mr. Kon

All Shriek

Samuel and Daniel Kon shriek at the realization that their heads collide... They fall unconscious

All: Yaz?

Cuts to black
