

The Winthrop & Amice Wedding

July 12th 1456

The Parish Church in Preston. St. Wilfred's is a charming church dating back to the 7th century.

(above) Amice is walked to the church by her good friends and bridesmaids; Grizelda and Faith.
 (top left) Priest 420 stands at the church gate waiting for people to arrive.
 (bottom left) Eric and Grizelda pretend to be a bride and groom.

The couple are married by Priest 420 under the eyes of Jah.

The wedding bands have been crafted by the talented Trueheart of Preston in gold.

(top) Some of the party stand outside the church.

(bottom right) A reception is held at the Preston Guild Hall. All of the town are invited to attend.

(bottom left) The Singing Blubberies entertain folk in the guild hall grounds.

