

20190821 My World as an Elaborate Cage

Viktor Nonong Medrano

My world may be an elaborate cage, as a birdcage or terrarium. Most people whom I encounter seem not sentient. Only two people that I have met seem really sentient: Don Chan and Bratislav "Brian" Tepsa. Is this world really just an elaborate illusion? The people, things, and events therein may be unreal. I think that I learn more from Star Trek than any Holy Scripture, with the exception maybe of the Dàodéjīng.
