

20190923 Bella the Armenian
Viktor Nonong Medrano

Bella the Armenian is a barista at the café Starbucks, here on Lulu Island. She lived in Armenia, after the Soviet Era. With her name, I thought that she was Hispanic or Italian. We discussed that some people in ex-Soviet places, like Eastern Europe, are learning English more. She speaks Russian also, as well as Armenian and English. Many in the Russosphere are gravitating towards the Anglosphere, now.
