

20190923 Sherie the Vampira
Viktor Nonong Medrano

Sherie the Vampira lives around the neighbourhood, here on Lulu Island. She looks like a short, plump Italian, but she is really a quarter Cree Native Indian, and the rest is French and other Caucasians. She is a Goth. She reads books by Anne Rice and the like. She has artificial vampire fangs. She originally was from Saskatchewan, where Cree live. She said that when she and her mother were visiting Cuba, people thought that they were Spanish.
