

20160326 Upright Stake, Not Cross

Viktor Nonong Medrano

Jehovah's Witness people believe that Jesus died on an upright stake, not a cross, as they think it's the correct translation.

As people sometimes walk perpendicularly across my path, they know the shape of the cross has a bad omen. Jehovah's Witness people don't worship the cross.

Jehovah's Witness people don't worship Jesus, but do worship Jehovah. They don't believe in the Trinity.
