

True meaning of thy "words" are never said

We doubt what we say

We spin them up

Words are as simple as "ABC"

For what they are for its never known

Are they for teaching?

For language?

Or we say whatever what we want to say and never known what we said afterwards

Words are alphabets that come into conjunction to form words